FROM THE DESK OF HOUSE MISTRESS

Dear Students, Staff, and APS Jodhpur Family,

As we step into the vibrant month of July, marking the beginning of a new academic term, it is a moment to reflect, reset, and rise with renewed purpose.

The summer months of May and June offered us all a much-needed pause—a time for rest, reflection and quiet growth. I am proud of the way our students made the most of it—some exploring creative passions, others engaging in reading, sports, or online learning. Even in rest, there was responsibility, and that is the hallmark of true leadership.

Now, as the school reopens, we welcome new beginnings—new classes, new goals, and new challenges. Let this term be a fresh chapter where we write our stories with confidence, discipline, and integrity. To all students—especially those joining us for the first time—I encourage you to embrace opportunities, support one another, and strive to uphold the proud legacy of our school and house.

We have always believed in leading by example. Let us continue to inspire through teamwork, resilience and respect for all. May the coming months be filled with meaningful learning, strong friendships, and personal growth.

Wishing each one of you a successful and joyful start.
