FROM THE DESK OF HOUSE MISTRESS

Dear Students,

It is with immense pride and affection that I address you all — the heart and soul of Army Public School, Jodhpur. Each one of you adds a unique colour to the vibrant canvas of our school. Your enthusiasm, curiosity, and determination are what make this institution not just a place of learning, but a home of growth and inspiration.

Education is not confined to textbooks or examinations; it is a lifelong journey of exploring new horizons, nurturing good values, and shaping character. Every day brings a chance to learn something new, to challenge yourself, and to take one more step towards your goals. Remember, success does not always come from winning — it often comes from the courage to try, the patience to improve, and the strength to rise after a fall. As students of this esteemed institution, you carry forward the legacy of discipline, respect, and perseverance. Let these values guide you in every endeavor. Be humble in success, gracious in competition, and resilient in adversity. Celebrate not only your own achievements but also those of your peers for true strength lies in unity and teamwork.

Always keep in mind that greatness is not measured by position or power, but by the positive difference you make in the lives of others. Be kind, be compassionate and be determined to bring out the best in yourself and those around you.

Let us together continue to uphold the honour and spirit of Army Public School, Jodhpur a place where dreams take flight and every student learns to lead with purpose and pride.

With warm regards and best wishes for your bright future,

Anjali Mehta

House Mistress
